

MARCHING EAGLE REGIMENT IN-TRAINING CLINIC

Parents, friends, family...ever wonder what it takes to be part of an elite marching band or wonder about the amazing instruction all these talented performers receive? Now's your chance to find out!

The staff of the Etiwanda Marching Eagle Regiment will be conducting clinics...

...meant especially for you!

Date: Friday, September 21, 2018

Time: 7:00pm—9:00pm (Check in at 6:45pm inside the EHS stadium)

Cost: $40 per person (Includes 2 hours of visual training and a commemorative t-shirt from this event.)

Itinerary includes:

Stretching/Physical Training— Always the first step when performing a physical activity. We promise we'll take it easy.

Visual Basics/Learn the Drill— Learn some of the terms our students have become so familiar with as well as what it takes to get from one dot to another on the field.

March the Show— You will learn a portion of the drill from our 2018 show, "Her Guiding Light"

Viewing—At the conclusion of "the show" we will hold a viewing to watch our performance.

Junior Staff students will be working as "techs", helping teach the different sections

This event is open to anyone 13 years and older!

Strict deadline to register is August 29th. Registration forms and payments may be submitted to the band box. Please mark the envelope "MER In-Training". Make checks payable to EHS Bands.

Be sure to include your email address below. A confirmation of your registration will be sent to you.

Questions: Contact Amy Lock at ehsbcg.auditor@gmail.com or 909-714-0604.

MARCHING EAGLE REGIMENT IN-TRAINING CLINIC

Name: _____ Referring Student: _____

Email: _____ Tel: _____

Adult shirt size: _____ Small _____ Medium _____ Large _____ XLarge _____ XXLarge

While you won't be playing an instrument, you will be learning visual with one.

Circle one and specify instrument:

Woodwinds

Brass

Instrument: _____

Percussion

Color Guard